DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 40 is objected to because of an informality, which can be corrected as follows: In line 2, "hole" should be replaced by –holes–. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 37, 38, and 40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chamberlin (2,097,018). Chamberlin discloses, in figure 2, a fastener having a first plate (5), a pair of laterally-spaced apart penetrating elements (11) on the first plate, a second plate (6), a pair of holes (10) on the second plate for receiving the penetrating elements, and a hinge (at 8). Note: The introductory statement of intended use ("for securing coapted valve leaflets together") has been carefully considered but deemed not to impose any structural limitations on the claims patentably distinguishable over Chamberlin's device, which is capable of being used as claimed if one desires to do so.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3731

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
  2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
  3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
  4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
5. Claim 41 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chamberlin. Chamberlin discloses the invention substantially as claimed, but does not specify the plate dimensions as claimed. Nevertheless, it would have been a matter of design choice to dimension the plates in the ranges of dimensions as claimed. The choices would be dependent upon the desired size for the fastener and upon the place of application for the fastener.

Response to Amendment

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 37, 38, 40, and 41 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. DeWan (5,125,758) teaches a fastener with plates and penetrating elements.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
